CHILD SAFETY CODE OF CONDUCT

-VISITORS AND VOLUNTEERS-

STATEMENT OF COMMITMENT

All children have the right to be safe and Glen Katherine Primary School recognises the need to have a zero-tolerance approach to child abuse. Glen Katherine Primary School takes into account the diversity of all children, including (but not limited to) the needs of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children, children from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, children with disabilities and children who

All staff, volunteers and members of the Glen Katherine Primary School community are required to observe child safe principles and expectations for appropriate behaviour towards and in the company of children, as noted below.

All visitors and volunteers of Glen Katherine Primary School are responsible for supporting the safety, participation, wellbeing and empowerment of children by:

- Adhering to Glen Katherine Primary School Child Safety policy at all times/upholding Glen Katherine Primary School statement of commitment to child safety at all times
- Taking all reasonable steps to protect children from abuse
- Treating everyone with respect
- Listening and responding to the views and concerns of children, particularly if they are telling you that they or another child has been abused and/or are worried about their safety or the safety of another
- Promoting the cultural safety, participation and empowerment of Aboriginal children (for example, by never questioning an Aboriginal child's self-identification)
- Promoting the cultural safety, participation and empowerment of children with culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds (for example, by having a zero tolerance of discrimination)
- Promoting the cultural safety, participation and empowerment of children with a disability (for example, during personal care activities)
- Ensuring as far as practicable that adults are not left alone with a child
- Reporting any allegations of child abuse to the Glen Katherine Primary School Child Safety Officer and/or Principal and/or Assistant Principal, and ensure any allegation is reported to the police or child protection
- Reporting any child safety concerns to the Glen Katherine Primary School Principal and/or Assistant Principal
- If an allegation of child abuse is made, ensure as quickly as possible that the child (ren) are safe
- Encouraging children to 'have a say' and participate in all relevant organisational activities where possible, especially on issues that are important to them

Visitors and volunteers must not:

- Develop any 'special' relationships with children that could be seen as favouritism (for example, the offering of gifts or special treatment for specific children)
- Exhibit behaviours with children which may be construed as unnecessarily physical (for example inappropriate sitting on laps. Sitting on laps could be appropriate sometimes, for example while reading a storybook to a small child in an open plan area)
- Put children at risk of abuse (for example, by locking doors)
- Do things of a personal nature that a child can do for themselves, such as toileting or changing clothes
- Engage in open discussion of a mature or adult nature in the presence of children (for example, personal social activities)
- Use inappropriate language in the present of children
- Express personal views on cultures, race or sexuality in the presence of children
- Discriminate against any child, including because of culture, race, ethnicity or disability
- Ignore or disregard any suspected or disclosed child abuse

By observing these standards you acknowledge your responsibility to immediately report any breach of this code to the Glen Katherine Primary School Principal.

If you believe a child is at immediate risk of abuse phone 000.

By signing in at our school you also agree to adhere to this Code of Conduct.
